First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

I want to express my personal thanks to everyone on our staff and parishioners who ministered to the community during Holy Week and last Easter Sunday. The teamwork shown by everyone who served creates a tremendous experience for those who come and celebrate the Mass, which every time reminds us of the resurrection of Jesus.

The Second Sunday of this Easter season (lasts for 50 days) is called Divine Mercy Sunday. This special remembrance of the Lord's mercy was established by Pope John Paul II. Jesus appears, after his resurrection, to his disciples. Most ran away out of fear during Jesus' suffering and death. Jesus greets them with peace, and does not dwell on their failure, rather his mercy and love are given to them. This is a great example for all of us to be open to the mercy of God, and secondly to be merciful to others.

Today's Gospel at Mass reminds us that God's great gift to us is his mercy.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Kids Corner Ministry

HELP NEEDED!

I am sure you have all heard the saying "It takes a village to raise a child." We are called St. Patrick Catholic community because we strive to embrace and support all members of the community, especially children. St. Patrick already has a number of amazing programs and ministries meant to support families and the formation of children, such as Family Faith Formation, Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, Children's Liturgy of the Word, Young Disciples, and Kids Corner. These programs are made available largely through support of volunteers.

If you have children you know it takes a village, it takes the support of a community. As Catholics it is our responsibility to show others by our example how much we truly value families and the upbringing of children. Pope Francis reminds us that "we need to see each child as a gift to be welcomed, cherished, and protected." One ministry that serves to do just that is our Kids Corner Ministry. Kids Corner Ministry is our nursery program which provides a safe and supervised childcare environment during Saturday and Sunday Masses to allow parents to worship more attentively. Like many other ministries, this service is only made possible with the help of volunteers. Unfortunately if we do not have enough volunteers we will no longer be able to run the nursery program.

With that being said, we are in need of adult and teen volunteers. All that is needed is a love for little ones (ages walking to 4 yrs old) who can play and supervise them during Mass. Many of the children play independently and others love when adults and teens interact with them and follow their lead (i.e. playing with dolls and pretend food). We ask that you please consider and pray about the possibility of being a volunteer for our Kids Corner Ministry. If you are interested in volunteering or if you would like more information please contact Yasmine Rodriguez at yrodriguez@stpatcc.org.

It takes a village and hopefully together as a Catholic community we can be an example to the world to see each child as a gift to be welcomed, cherished and protected.

Stewardship

Perhaps you have a scar somewhere on your body. If not, you probably know someone who does. Most scars come with a story. "This happened to me during the war," a veteran grandfather might say. "Once, when I was a kid, I crashed my bike and got this scar," a friend may reveal. Regardless of how or when, the scar takes the bearer back to the moment almost instantly--back to the pain, the purpose, and perhaps the panic. Those who see the scar might not attach all the memories and physical pain to it, but the scar acts as living proof of the suffering and pain endured by the other.

In this week's gospel, we see poor St. Thomas. There's never been an unluckier saint when it comes to being in the wrong place at the wrong time. He missed one staff meeting and look what it gets him: two thousand years of people calling him "the doubter." Despite this stigma we see in St. Thomas, a great proclamation of faith in God with his response, "My Lord and my God!"

Yes, Jesus offered to show his scars so that Thomas would believe. But the point we often gloss over is that the resurrected Jesus still had scars. When Jesus rose from the dead, the scars did not go away. The scars are a testament to the suffering, yes, but also a reminder that the suffering gave way to ultimate victory and glory!

This is why St. John reminds us in the second reading that it's "by water and blood" that we are saved. This is why the rejection of the cornerstone is not the end of the story in the psalm. This is how, in the reading from Acts, the apostles could live in community, and live for one another in total trust, and how they bore witness, even in the face of persecution--because they saw the scars. This was no hallucination or dream. The risen Christ allowed them to touch him, eat with him, speak to him, and--when necessary--even put their hand into his side. God gives us everything we need to believe. Doing so is a great act of mercy to those of us who are sinners, doubters, and unbelievers (which is really all of us in some way or another).

Social Justice

Congratulations to our parishioners and guests who recently completed their Just Faith formation studies on the topic of Indigenous Justice. Thank you to facilitators Gerry & Ken Blakeman and Kris Jacober and to all the participants who took the time to engage in this social justice topic. Participants gathered for eight sessions, plus a local immersion trip, to deepen their knowledge about the struggles of our indigenous neighbors while also learning about how Catholic Social Teaching shapes their faithful response to this social issue.

Through prayer, discussion, videos, readings, and meditation the class studied the following topics:

- Session 1: The Places We Call Home
- Session 2: Whose Land?
- Session 3: Sacred Land, Sacred Air, Sacred Water
- Session 4: Stolen Children
- Session 5: Exile
- Session 6: Honoring Indigenous Women
- Immersion Experience to Yavapai Cultural Center
- Session 7: "We Are Still Here!" Sovereignty and Representation
- Session 8: "Solidarity is Not Symbolic"

Edison Brown, a guest speaker from Native American Connections, joined the group one session to share the mission of their organization and highlighted their 21 different housing sites throughout the valley which include services for their residents.

Look for upcoming sessions next Fall on the topic of Hunger and Food Insecurity.

Just Coffee

The Just Coffee ministry will be selling the Cafe Justo brand coffee next weekend on April 13 & 14. You are invited to stop by the table in the Narthex.

Selling this Cafe Justo coffee product supports the farmer cooperative in Mexico and provides their workers with livable wages and job opportunities, ultimately keeping families together on their own land. This is a faith in action ministry at St. Patrick that addresses immigration, trade imbalances, and poverty in third world countries. All workers and families receive healthcare and pensions, and profits are reinvested in their communities.
