First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

Once the hosts on the altar have been consecrated by the priest and have been consumed by the community, we might not be aware of what happens to the remaining consecrated hosts. The hosts are placed in a tabernacle as each parish is asked to have a place that is noble and prominent according to our liturgical documents. When one reads the General Instructions of the Roman Missal (GIRM), it states that it is placed in a chapel area. Great care should be given to where that is placed, and it should be beautifully decorated. It also states that if this is not possible for a chapel, then it may be placed in a prominent area in the sanctuary.

Our tabernacle is placed at the center of our property and is open for prayer anytime our campus is open. First thing in the morning until our last function at night, anyone is invited to pray before the Blessed Sacrament. The placement is confusing for some, as the belief is that it has to be behind the altar, and some are upset that it is not. Reading the Church documents on liturgy, it states that the chapel is a proper placement for the tabernacle. And if that is not possible in a parish, then it is to be placed somewhere in the sanctuary.

The history of our parish was that we only had one building on the property (Fenlon Center), which was a multi-purpose building, so there were all types of activities in the building. There really was no dedicated place for prayer. So, in building our main building, we thought that the Blessed Sacrament chapel should be dedicated solely to prayer. No other activities or sound is found in that sacred chapel.

Parishioners and all people are encouraged to come and pray in our chapel. A refuge from a busy world, a place to listen to God, a place to remember God is with us in our joys and challenges.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

St. Bonaventure on God and Creation

Have you ever been on top of a mountain, or listened to the crashing of the Ocean waves, or just stared up at the thousands of stars in the night sky and have been struck by the beauty of it all? We live in a world full of beauty and wonder. Unfortunately, many times we become so focused on the negativity of life that we lose sight of the beauty of creation. In modern times, especially with technology, our lives move so fast that it can be easy to lose sight of the beauty of nature and creation. We see pictures of exotic places and animals and we share posts and like pictures online, but rarely do we take the time to think why we find those things to be beautiful or what they mean to us.

St. Bonaventure (1217-1274) was a Franciscan friar who followed in the footsteps of St. Francis of Assisi in pointing out the beauty of creation. In his work, St. Bonaventure talks about three routes by which we journey to know God. One of those routes is the material world of creation which Bonaventure described as “traces” of God. He viewed the world sacramentally and referred to the natural world as a book or a mirror because it points beyond itself to the Triune God. For Bonaventure, the material world is intimately connected to the spiritual life and our relationship to God. He describes how the soul progresses along a journey by contemplating the way God is reflected in the material world. St. Bonaventure shows our ascent to God begins with the material world and our senses which leads to contemplation of God himself. He states, “in relation to our position in creation, the universe itself is a ladder by which we can ascend into God.” One of his most famous analogies compares the natural world to a stained glass window. Just as you see rays of light entering through stained glass that is colored differently, so the divine rays of light shine forth in each and every creature in different ways and in different properties. Bonaventure teaches us that creation is like a book which can be opened and read to understand and grow closer to God. Creation is a product of God’s love; our only appropriate response is to return that love.

Next time you see and experience something beautiful in the world, maybe take the time to stop and think about how that beauty is a reflection of God's love. On Tuesday, July 15 the church celebrates the feast of St. Bonaventure, hopefully this week we can all be reminded that the proof of God’s love and his existence is all around us.

Stewardship

Stewardship

In today's gospel, the parable of the Good Samaritan teaches us that love of neighbor is not defined by boundaries or convenience, but by compassion and action. This passage challenges us to see all people in need as our responsibility. Stewardship calls us to generously use our time, talents, and resources in service to others, even when it is uncomfortable or sacrificial. Perhaps, particularly when it is uncomfortable and sacrificial. The Samaritan didn't just feel compassion—he acted, offering his own provisions and care. Likewise, we are called to be intentional and merciful stewards of God's love in a hurting world.

Water safety tips for swimmers of all ages

Learn to swim

Teach children at an early age -- it's the best defense against drowning

Pool barriers/fences

Install a fence that surrounds a residential pool on all sides to keep wandering children out

Avoid alcohol

Designate a "water watcher" who is not distracted or under the influence of drugs and alcohol to watch swimmers

Use the buddy system

If one person has a problem in the water, the other may be able to help

Vigilant supervision

If it looks like a swimmer needs assistance, intervene immediately

Don't hold your breath

Avoid games where you hold your breath underwater for long periods of time

ROCK45 is off for the summer and will resume in the Fall. In the meantime, we'll share some fun, creative ways to nurture your tweens' faith this summer. Enjoy!

Looking for a way to "unplug" and engage the imagination?

Growing up, our children loved to listen to Adventures In Odyssey, which is an award-winning, original audio drama series created for kids ages 8-12 and enjoyed by the whole family. Many a lazy summer day in the Kar house was filled with listening to these adventures. The episodes teach lasting truths and bring biblical principles to life, with just the right balance of fun, faith and imagination. BONUS: NO SCREEN needed! Just our ears to hear and brain to imagine!

You can find out more about Adventures in Odyssey online, at adventuresinodyssey.com. Tune into an episode while creating Legos, coloring, doing crafts or driving in the car. D.Kar

Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) is taking a summer break! What a wonderful year it's been—filled with joy, learning, and growing together in God's love. We're so grateful for the children who joined us and can't wait to welcome everyone back in September during the 8:30 and 10:30 am Masses. We're also looking for kind and enthusiastic adults to help bring the Word of God to life for our young ones. No experience? No problem! We provide all the training you'll need.

If you're interested in being part of this meaningful ministry, please reach out to Yasmine Rodriguez at the parish office: yrodriguez@stpatcc.org. We'd love to have you join the team!

Young Disciples is on summer break! What a fantastic year we've had—full of learning, laughter, crafts, and creativity! We're so grateful for all the little ones who joined us and can't wait to welcome them back this September during the 8:30 and 10:30 am Masses.

Young Disciples is specially designed for potty-trained preschoolers (ages 3–5) to experience the Gospel in a fun and meaningful way—through stories, puppets, drama, and song.

Want to learn more or interested in becoming a volunteer minister? Reach out to Yasmine Rodriguez at yrodriguez@stpatcc.org.
