First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

As we enter the summer months, there is an opportunity to look at what changes need to be made for the beginning of the fall season. I want to announce some exciting changes in our parish staff.

I have asked Sue Orlando to take on the position of Parish Administrator. She is currently in the position of Human Resources and Database. She has a long history of working in the Diocese in different positions. I trust her; she is loyal to the parish vision, and we can work well together.

I have asked Eric Tamayo, our Pastoral Associate, to be our full-time Parish Liturgist. Liturgy is one of our pillars, and it takes a full-time person to have Liturgy done well. People might think it is only a Sunday work position, but it really requires work behind the scenes. Recruiting, training, and teaching all liturgy ministers, teaching the understanding of liturgy to the parish community, as liturgy is every day in a parish community. He will be working closely with me and Paul Hillebrand, our Music Director.

I am also announcing that we have hired Leah Hill as our Social Justice Coordinator. Leah grew up in our parish and saw from the beginning our Social Justice at St. Patrick. She brings great experience, working with Honor Health and Mayo Hospital, organizing and helping people be their best in their professions. Pope Leo XIV has stated that social justice will be important in his papacy, and St. Patrick understands that Catholic Social Teaching is rooted in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. I feel confident in these hirings, and we have more positions to fill this summer. We are looking to strengthen our five pillars (liturgy, social justice, hospitality, formation, and stewardship), and we are on our way to keep improving.

Please keep us in your prayers as we move forward this fall.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission Living Beyond Sunday

BY ERIC TAMAYO,
Pastoral Associate

The Ascension

This week we celebrate the Feast of the Ascension. God the Father exalts Jesus after his death raising him as the first of the dead and taking Him to Heaven where he is seated at the right hand of the Father. The Ascension reminds us not to place our hope in the things of this world but rather in heaven. As Jesus assured his disciples, we should take confidence in the promise of Jesus who has prepared a place for us in heaven. Jesus precedes us into the Father's kingdom so that we, as members of his body, may live in hope of one day being with him. It is his love that sustains us and comforts us in our daily lives.

The Ascension marks the definitive entrance of Jesus' humanity into God's heavenly domain. As he is lifted up from the earth he draws all of humanity into himself and we share in his glory. Being seated at the Father's right hand signifies the fulfillment of the prophet David's vision concerning the Son of man, "To him was given dominion and glory and kingdom, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve him; his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom one that shall not be destroyed." The Apostles witnessing this event testifies to the glory of God and the everlasting hope we have in the promise of Christ. Jesus entering the sanctuary of heaven reveals his constant intercession for us as the mediator who assures us of the permanent outpouring of the Holy Spirit. This of course prepares us for Pentecost which we will celebrate next week.

The departure from Jesus from the earth may seem like a time of waiting for when he will return again. But the time we have on earth shouldn't simply be a time of waiting, rather it is a time for preparation. The Ascension gives us a glimpse of Jesus' eternal promise, but if Christ appeared to you now would you be prepared? Unfortunately, we don't have the chance to experience Jesus on this earth like the Apostles did, but we can still have a relationship with him. We can still talk to him and experience him in our lives. The Ascension is a sign for us that Jesus is truly our mediator and will never abandon us. He sustains us and offers us comfort each day if we are open to receiving it.

Stewardship

Stewardship

In John 14:23-29, Jesus promises that those who love Him will keep His word, and in return, He and the Father will make their home with them. This abiding presence of God calls us to a deeper form of stewardship—not just of resources, but of our hearts and daily lives. True stewardship begins with obedience to Christ and flows outward in how we care for others and the world around us. Jesus also promises the Holy Spirit as our helper, guiding us in peace and truth as we serve. As stewards of His love and presence, we are called to live faithfully, share generously, and lead lives that reflect His peace to others. May the Holy Spirit guide us to embrace deeper stewardship, living each day with faithful love, generous hearts, and a commitment to serve.

TIME TOGETHER:

- + Spend some time outside with your grandchildren enjoying the wonders of nature. A butterfly, a blooming rose, a ladybug, and even a feather are all part of God's plan. Find a few rocks and bring them inside to paint together. God is our rock; He is strong and unchanging.
- + FaceTime a story. Whether you are close or far away, find a consistent time each week to read your grandchild a story (in person or via a screen). Collect books and write down a couple of questions to ask them. This can become a family tradition!

Bury it somewhere outside or hide it inside. Keep it closed for one year, then come together to open it, have some laughs, and be reminded that time can change some things. Other things never change - the love we have for each other and the love God has for each of us!

PRAYER:

A prayer for my adult children.
God, thank you for the blessing of watching my children grow into parents. The world can be overwhelming, and I often see stress and worry in their faces. I pray for your peace in their lives. That they would seek you in the midst of their busyness. Pour your grace over them and their families. Amen.

SUMMER EDITION

Inspiration, Ideas, and
Encouragement for Grandparents

CREATE A SIMPLE PRAYER SPACE TOGETHER

Setting up a small sacred space in your home with your grandchildren can be a great way to mark a space for prayer when they visit. First, find a small spot on a table or nook and use a cloth to anchor the space. Add a Bible, cross or crucifix, sacred images, and any other faith statues or mementos that you have. As you place these in the space, share stories about your different items. Have your grandchildren fill a vase with water and cut some flowers to fill it. Our Mother Mary loves to be surrounded by flowers. You may also want to add a candle. When your grandchildren visit, use this spot to say a short prayer or give a blessing. Let them help you take care of the space; this may encourage them to create a space in their own room at home as well.

Recipe: Mini Apple Pie Bites!

- 1/2 cup sugar
- 2 tsp. ground cinnamon
- 2 sheets refrigerated pie crust
- 3 tbsp. butter (melted and divided)
- 2 medium tart apples
- Caramel sauce (optional)

Preheat oven to 425°. In a small bowl, mix sugar and cinnamon. On a lightly floured surface, unroll pie crusts. Roll and trim each to an 8 inch square. Brush with 2 tablespoons of butter and sprinkle with half of the sugar mixture. Cut each square into eight 1 inch strips. Cut each apple into 8 wedges and wrap one strip of pastry around each wedge, placing sugared side of pastry against the apple. Place on a parchment-lined baking sheet. Brush tops with remaining butter and sprinkle with remaining sugar mixture. Bake for 13-15 minutes or until pastry is golden brown. Serve warm with caramel sauce!

Nurses Corner

Men's Health Month
HEALTHY 2025
TIPS FOR MEN

Everyday Health Tips Men Should Know

Sleep Well
Adults need between 7-9 hours of sleep.
Insufficient sleep is associated with a number of chronic diseases and conditions, such as diabetes, cardiovascular disease, obesity, and depression.

Move More
Adults need at least 2 1/2 hours of moderate-intensity aerobic activity every week.
Spread your jogging or gym activity out during the week, breaking it into smaller amounts of time rather than doing it all in one day.

Drink Water
Getting enough water every day is important for your health.
Water helps keep your temperature normal, lubricates and cushions joints, protects your spinal cord and other sensitive tissues, and gets rid of wastes through urination, perspiration, and bowel movements. It also helps control calories.

Eat to THRIVE
Getting enough nutrition is crucial.
Focus on nutrients rather than calories. Fruits and vegetables have many vitamins and minerals that may help protect you from chronic diseases.

Tame Your Stress
The best ways to manage stress in hard times are through self-care.
Avoid drugs and alcohol. Stay connected and seek help. Stay active and most of all make sure you take care of yourself.

Toss Out Tobacco
It's never too late to quit.
Quitting smoking has immediate and long-term benefits. It improves your health and lowers your risk of heart disease, cancer, lung disease, and other smoking related illnesses.

Enjoy Yourself
Participate in fun activities you enjoy every day, like hiking, biking, sports, relaxing, listening to music, and seeing friends and family. Look forward to each and every day!

Stay on Top of Your Game
See your doctor or nurse for checkups.
Certain diseases and conditions may not have symptoms, so checkups help identify issues early or before they can become a problem.
Pay attention to signs and symptoms such as chest pain, shortness of breath, excessive thirst, and problems with urination.

Life Teen Summer Camp is around the corner, happening July 6 - 11 in Julian, CA! This is an unforgettable week where teens will encounter Christ through the sacraments, powerful prayer experiences, small group discussions, and dynamic speakers who foster authentic community. Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) is taking a summer break! What a wonderful year it's been—filled with joy, learning, and growing together in God's love. We're so grateful for the children who joined us and can't wait to welcome everyone back in September during the 8:30 and 10:30 am Masses.

We're also looking for kind and enthusiastic adults to help bring the Word of God to life for our young ones. No experience? No problem! We provide all the training you'll need.

If you're interested in being part of this meaningful ministry, please reach out to Yasmine Rodriguez at the parish office: yrodriguez@stpatcc.org. We'd love to have you join the team!

Young Disciples is on summer break! What a fantastic year we've had—full of learning, laughter, crafts, and creativity! We're so grateful for all the little ones who joined us and can't wait to welcome them back this September during the 8:30 and 10:30 am Masses.

Young Disciples is specially designed for potty-trained preschoolers (ages 3–5) to experience the Gospel in a fun and meaningful way—through stories, puppets, drama, and song.

Want to learn more or interested in becoming a volunteer minister? Reach out to Yasmine Rodriguez at yrodriguez@stpatcc.org.
