First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

This week our campus will be filled with children for our annual Vacation Bible School. There is so much energy, excitement, hard work and joy with having our children on our campus all week long.

I want to express the parish's gratitude to the many parishioners, including our youth, who have come forward to give time to make this Vacation Bible School a fun experience as well as learning more about God and his love for all of us.

During this week, our Daily 8:00 am Masses will be moved to the Daily Mass Chapel so that the church will be able to welcome the children all in one place. We are expecting some great numbers this year and that reminds us that the life of the church community is alive and well.

We welcome the parents who are bringing their children to Vacation Bible School and hope they continue to bring them in the fall when our formation programs begin for all their children and youth.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

BY MARY PERMODA,
Director of Pastoral Activities

Welcome to our new Director of Communication and Digital Engagement Liam Kowalczyk! Please give him a warm St. Patrick welcome when you see him!!

Thank you Adam Stein for your years of service to St. Patrick Catholic Community as our Coordinator of Communication! You brought us to a new level of communication all through COVID-19 and then some - thank you! We wish you well in your new adventure! Especially knowing you are not leaving our community! We look forward to seeing you and your family around campus and at Mass!

Stewardship

The world craves intimacy. Sadly, the word "intimate" has lost its proper connotation in modern culture. Real intimacy, at its core, is far more about the spirit than the flesh. From the Latin intimus, "intimate" means to "make the innermost known."

The world craves a love that is completely trustworthy, safe, and true. To make our innermost hearts, fears, struggles, pains, and anxieties known to another is frightening because it can be taken advantage of and betrayed. Most heartbreak stems from a desire for intimacy that has been mishandled.

True prayer is intimate. The sacraments are intimate. The Holy Trinity offers us perfect intimacy because pure love can only give of itself and takes nothing in return. In this way, the Holy Trinity is, obviously, perfect intimacy because all three persons (and one God) are perfect love.

Today's first reading demonstrates God's desire for intimacy with us which is why He came near to Moses and, incidentally, why He gave us the Ten Commandments — to keep us in right relationship with Himself. Saint Paul's second letter to the Corinthians not only demonstrates his deep, personal love for them but gives instruction on how they are to grow in holy intimacy with one another. God, in giving us His only Son to save us, not only demonstrated His love for Christ but His great love for us — His sinful, but beloved children. God offers us Himself in love, grace and fellowship. Humility accepts the proposal while pride rejects it and Him.

Do you view intimacy differently after reflecting on the readings? How can you start making your life more intimate with God and our mission of being Christian Disciples in Mission?

Stephen's MINISTRY

Do you have an empathetic heart and truly care for people going through tough times? If so, then Stephen's ministry might be the right ministry for you!

Stephen's Ministry provides high-quality, one-to-one, Christ-centered care to people in the parish and community experiencing difficult times.

Stephen Ministers are parish members trained by their Stephen Leaders to offer care to people who are hurting. A Stephen Minister typically has one care receiver at a time and meets with that person once a week for about an hour.

Care receivers are individuals in the parish or community who are going through a crisis or life difficulty. Potential care receivers first meet with a Stephen Leader, who assesses their needs for care and matches them with a Stephen Minister. The caring relationship lasts for as long as the need persists.

If you think you would be interested in becoming a Stephen minister, then please contact Dr. Lenny Kelley at lkelly@stpatcc.org. In the subject line of the email please write Stephen's Ministry.

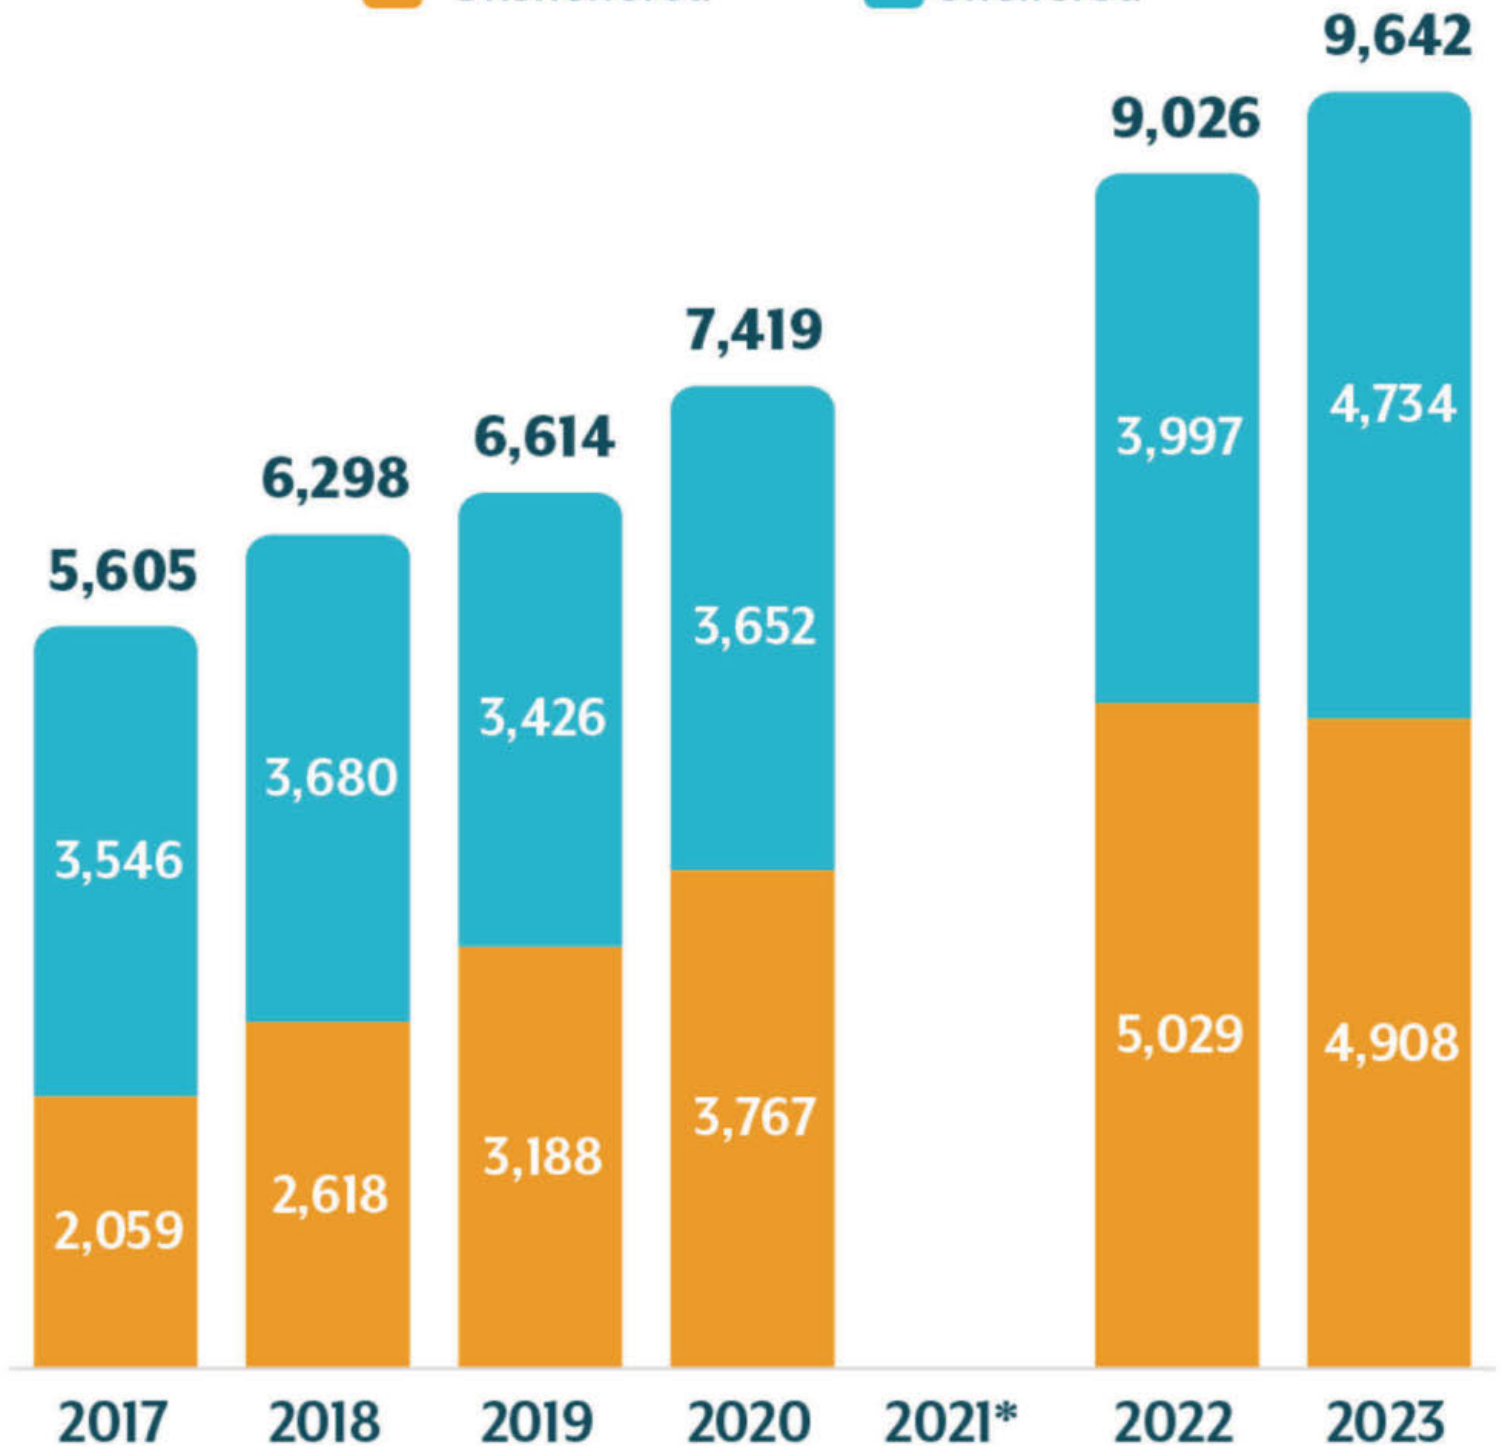

This is a new ministry we are hoping to build at St. Patrick Catholic Community, so if you feel like you could benefit from being a Care receiver, please know we are working to get the ministry up and running as soon as possible.

Please read the article on the next page to learn more about the annual Point-In-Time count.

Total PIT Count, 2017-2023

Unsheltered Sheltered

Source: Maricopa Regional Continuum of Care PIT Count, 2017-2023

*The PIT Count was not conducted in 2021 due to the pandemic

Social Justice

Point-In-Time Count

What is the PIT Count? The Point-In-Time Homeless Count is an annual street and shelter count that determines the number of people experiencing homelessness in Maricopa County during a given point in time. Conducted on a single day in January (this year it was January 24), this project includes a brief survey to identify the needs and characteristics of those experiencing homelessness. Every Continuum of Care is required to submit PIT Count results to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) as part of a national effort to identify the extent of homelessness across the country.

As you look at the graph on the previous page, you will see a number corresponding to the terms sheltered and unsheltered.

Think of the term unsheltered as a person who does not have any type of sustainable structure over their heads. It is a living space that is not meant for human habitation. This may consist of an abandoned building, a car, a tent, public park, sidewalk, or a desert wash for example.

The term sheltered generally refers to a more sustainable structure, designed as a temporary place, but it provides better protection from the outdoor elements and exposure. This can be an emergency shelter, transitional housing, or a safe haven facility for example. Both of these terms are used for those experiencing homelessness. They have no permanent housing option.

The total count for 2023 for both sheltered and unsheltered is 9,642 persons who are experiencing homelessness in Maricopa County alone. Since 2017, there has been a steady increase when that number was 5,605. For more information and to see the detailed final report, go to azmag.gov or go to your search engine and type in 2023 PIT Report.

PRAYER FOR THOSE EXPERIENCING HOMELESSNESS

Heavenly Father, we pray for those experiencing the struggle of being homeless in the world. You know each one of them by name, Lord. You know everything they are going through in this hot weather. Guide them to shelters so that they can be protected from the heat of the sun. Bless the little ones who are so uncomfortable and restless, Father.

May they continue to dwell in the secret place of the Most High and abide in the shadow of the Almighty. Provide for them water to quench their thirst. It gets worse during this season. May You keep them from heat related-stress Father, and if any of them gets in danger, we pray that You will send someone to rescue them from harm. Give them comfort, Father. In Your precious Name we pray. Amen.
