First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

Fridays during the Lenten season are times to draw us to share in Christ's suffering through our own acts of penance. We might fast from food or other things in life to clear our lives of things keeping us distant from God. We abstain from meat or maybe other things to remind us to simplify our lives and to be humble.

We do not live in Lent with our acts of fasting, prayer and almsgiving with a thought that Jesus has not risen yet. He already has. Even on Sundays during Lent, we still celebrate the Resurrection so there is a celebratory part to Lent on Sundays.

In the practice of the Church, whenever a special feast day falls during Lent, including St. Patrick feast day, there is the opportunity for that day to celebrate that feast day. St. Patrick's Day falls on a Friday this year and Bishop John Dolan has given dispensation from giving up meat to celebrate our feast day.

So we are offering the entire parish an opportunity to gather, build community and enjoy eating meat (BBQ) on March 17. We are calling it "MEAT UP AT ST. PATRICK". The details for this gathering can be found on the Stewardship page (page 5) in this bulletin.

Meat on Friday during Lent? I would not miss it! Hope to see you there.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Help Students Achieve

The Paradise Valley Unified School District consists of nearly 100 square miles in NE Phoenix and N Scottsdale (not Paradise Valley). The district serves more than 25,000 students. There are 16 Title I schools, 30% of the students are on a free/reduced lunch program and 7% of students are English language learners.

We are looking for tutoring at the Elementary School level and at one of our Alternative Schools.

As a VIP volunteer, you provide one-on-one and small group instruction. You receive training to become an effective, confident, tutor and the opportunity to make a meaningful difference.

Students today:

COVID has played a devastating role in the loss of students' academic scores in reading, writing, and mathematics. Maybe more importantly, students have missed two years of social and emotional skills training.

Global research shows that the pandemic has adversely affected mental health in youth.

We have a chronic attendance problem after our students learned that education or school was 'optional'. Parents and students stayed home during the pandemic and post-pandemic, some parents think that students can come and go to school when it's convenient.

We want our students to be surrounded by people who care about them and we want school to be so much fun that students will want to be there everyday. Educators, with the help of volunteers, can create a positive, safe, and affirming school setting.

Josh Shipp once said that "every kid is one caring adult away from being a success story". Can you be that caring adult?

Stewardship

Happy second Sunday of Lent! Every year we take a journey through the season of Lent which offers an opportunity for us to be transformed. Starting with the ashes we received on Ash Wednesday and ending with the Easter Triduum (Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday), this season is filled with opportunities to grow as disciples of Jesus.

Lent is a beautiful opportunity to remember how the sacrifices we make can lead us to something greater. Lent is a designated time for a deepening of prayer, sacrifice, almsgiving, repentance, and contemplation of Christ's sacrifice on the cross, as well as an opportunity for connection with your faith community (through special liturgies, prayer services, and gatherings). Every liturgical season exists within the year to point us to something greater. Lent points us to Jesus' preparation in the desert to make the ultimate sacrifice for us on the cross.

Regardless, each season points us to one particular overarching theme: The fruit that was borne by the Paschal Mystery. The Church's whole goal during the season of Lent is to continue to point us back to Christ and the salvation He won for us on the cross. Although the season may seem grim, there is so much to celebrate! (CCC 1171, 1071)

DRIVE A GOLF CART

Change a life!

Why Drive? It's rewarding...

- To assist those who truly need help getting to the church.
- To be an ambassador of our faith community to out-of-town visitors.
- To serve families with kids. Kids love to ride the carts and it enhances their liturgical experience. (Who knows, it may be the reason they bring their own family to church when they grow up.)
- People often are disoriented by the large sections of parking and they value the personal assistance to safely find their way back to their car.
- You're already coming to Mass, why not try serving in a ministry while you're here?

Christ in Our Neighborhood

March 12, 2023

Prayer

Father, you have taught us to overcome our sins by prayer, fasting, and works of mercy. When we are discouraged by our weakness, give us confidence in Your love. Grant this through our Lord, Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

Commentary

1st Reading: Exodus 17:3-7

Our readings this weekend invite us to thirst for God. God supplies us with all of our needs; even in times of trouble.

The Israelites complained as they wandered in the desert. Suffering from thirst, they began to grumble against the Lord. Though God lead them through the Red Sea and away from Pharaoh's army, they still failed to trust in the Lord.

How many times have we complained to God when our immediate needs weren't met? We can easily forget that God has always been on our side. Instead of counting our blessings, we find a reason to blame the Lord for our temporary misfortunes.

Instead of thirsting for immediate results, try thirsting for God! The Israelites were impatient. Instead of being impatient ourselves, perhaps we can patiently thirst for God who, in His time, will quench our thirst.

Thirst for God!

Questions

Have I ever been impatient with God?
Do I take time in prayer to count my blessings?

Commentary

2nd Reading: Romans 5:1-2, 5-8

When we make it our spiritual practice to thirst for God, we are acknowledging that God had already quenched our thirst at some point in our lives. Our hope in God is based on our prior experience of the Lord who has not disappointed us.

St. Paul had a perfect faith in the Lord who satisfied his every longing. This is why he could confidently say,

"...we boast in hope of the glory of God. And hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us."

We must hope in God who does not disappoint us. We must not be afraid to hope in God. Why lose another day without hope?

Pope John Paul II said, "It is very important to cross the threshold of hope, not to stop before it, but to let oneself be led." (Crossing the Threshold of Hope)

Our Lenten practices should include embracing the virtue of Hope and letting the love of God quench our souls.

Our hope is in the Lord who does not disappoint!

Question

When did I last place my hope in the Lord?

The commentaries over these 6 weeks of Lent are presented by Bishop John Dolan of the Diocese of Phoenix.

Commentary

Gospel: John 4:5-42

Following our theme of thirsting, we find in today's Gospel of John the story of Jesus and the woman at the well.

Jesus asks the Samaritan woman to give him a drink. Later, he says to her that he will provide for her living water. In both cases, the woman misinterprets his meaning and assumes he is speaking about the water in the well. However, he has something else in mind.

Jesus says, "Give me a drink."

We thirst for God only because He first thirsts for us. He longs to be in communion with us and continually calls us to give Him our hearts. Our love should pour from our hearts to satisfy our God.

Unfortunately, on our own, we have proven that we can't give God a drink. On our own, we cannot pour out our love.

Jesus invites us the woman to drink from Him, the Living Water.

We cannot begin to pour out our love for God until we first drink from His Son, the water of eternal life.

It is said that we cannot give what he have not first received. Thanks be to God, we are able to love God with our whole heart because God has first loved us through Jesus His Son.

Question

How have I responded to the Love of God in my life?

This Week's Task

The readings for these next few weeks are designed to assist those who are preparing for the Sacraments of Initiation through Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation. For example, the image of water in today's readings relates to the Sacrament of Baptism.

Take time this week to pray for those who are preparing to celebrate the Sacraments of Initiation in the Church.

Group Prayer

The leader invites each member to pass a bowl of water and make a sign of the cross as a personal renewal of their own baptism.

After all have renewed their baptism, the leader invites the group to remain quiet for forty seconds. This is a time to be still and meditate on the Love of God which has been poured out on us through Jesus.

The leader will then guide the group in praying Psalm 95

Psalm

Response: If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Come, let us sing joyfully to the LORD;
let us acclaim the Rock of our salvation.
Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving;
let us joyfully sing psalms to him.

R: If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Come, let us bow down in worship;
let us kneel before the LORD who made us.
For he is our God,
and we are the people he shepherds,
the flock he guides.

R: If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Oh, that today you would hear his voice:
"Harden not your hearts as at Meribah,
as in the day of Massah in the desert,
Where your fathers tempted me;
they tested me though they had seen my works."

R: If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Social Justice

We celebrate National Women's History Month from March 1 - March 31. Originally, this month of recognition started out as only a one day observance in 1978 called Women's History Day organized by educators in a school district in Sonoma, CA. It was created to bring more awareness of women's contributions to society.

This movement caught attention across the United States and in 1980 the National Women's History Alliance advocated to have the observance be a week long instead of one day. This was supported by President Jimmy Carter who issued a proclamation for the week of March 8 every year. He said in part when referring to the history of our nation, "Too often women were the unsung and their contributions went unnoticed. But the achievements, leadership, courage, strength, and love of the women who built America were as vital as that of the men whose names we know so well."

In 1987, this observance and recognition was approved by Congress to be celebrated annually for the whole month of March. Every year there is a designated theme. The theme for 2023 is "Celebrating Women Who Tell Our Stories." According to the National Women's History Alliance, this year's theme "recognizes women, past and present, who have been active in all forms of media and storytelling including print, radio, tv, stage, screen, blogs, podcasts, news, and social media." Since its inception in 1978, other countries like Canada and Australia have mirrored this recognition for women who have contributed in different ways to their respective cultures and the world as a whole.

Locally here in Arizona, the Arizona Women's Hall of Fame was initiated in 1981 by the Office of the Governor and the Arizona Women's Commission to "pay tribute to the remarkable women who have played a significant role in the history and formation of our state."

Catholics who need to be Confirmed, THIS MESSAGE IS FOR YOU!

Have you been BAPTIZED but never received your CONFIRMATION? Now might be the right time to receive your final Sacrament of Initiation.

All you need to do is show up on March 11, from 9:00 am to 12:00 pm with your baptism certificate. If you need a bit more time to get your Baptism Certificate, Dr. Lenny will work with you to get it done.

Dr. Lenny Kelley is doing a one-morning Sacrament of Confirmation session for all Baptized Catholics. I know many of you have been thinking about receiving your Confirmation for some time because you have told me. Now is your chance.
